

Taking Nashville's Table to Higher Ground

A BENEFIT FOR TWO CHARITIES ON THE FRONT LINES OF NASHVILLE FLOOD RELIEF

Join seven of the South's most exciting chefs for an evening of inventive food and fine wine.

JOHN FLEER, LONESOME VALLEY, CASHIERS, NORTH CAROLINA
JOHN CURRENCE, CITY GROCERY, OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI
LEE RICHARDSON, CAPITAL HOTEL, LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS
LINTON HOPKINS, RESTAURANT EUGENE, ATLANTA, GEORGIA
KELLY ENGLISH, RESTAURANT IRIS, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE
NICK SEABERGH, GIARDINA'S, GREENWOOD, MISSISSIPPI
DAVID GAUS, WASHINGTON, D.C.-BASED PASTRY CHEF

Live and silent auctions featuring unique culinary items and restaurant packages from the South's finest establishments.

TUESDAY, JULY 13
6:30 Cocktail Hour • 7:30 Dinner

THE CANNERY
Nashville, Tennessee
Tickets: $155 per person

BENEFICIARIES

The Community Resource Center, which has distributed more than $2.5 million in emergency and recovery supplies to flood victims.

Mobile Loaves and Fishes Nashville, which provided meals and supplies to more than 19,000 flood victims and relief workers.

(Tickets are 80 percent tax deductible.)

Advanced tickets may be purchased at
2021 Richard Jones Road, Suite 210, Nashville, Tennessee, 37215